CHARLOTTE.

R. P. WARING, Editor.

Monday October 25, 1869.

IMMIGRATION.—The extraordinary rush of immigrants to this country during the three months ending June 30, of the present year, is worth noting. The total number was 165,987—being a very large increase over the same period in previous years. The class of immigrants, too, is unusually good. We find among them, for example, 60 clergymen, 65 physicians, 58 artists, 5,559 mechanics, 333 bakers, 233 butchers, 74 seamstresses, 766 tailors, 1,058 masons, 1,518 of miscellaneous trades, 560 clerks, 15,553 farmers, 46,225 laborers, 1,943 traders, 8,103 mariners, 486 mariners, 5,790 servants and 768 of other specified occupations. Again, it is worthy of note that while Ireland sends 26,148, "Great Britain" (meaning we may suppose, England, Scotland and Wales,) sends 33,574. Germany, Austria and Prussia lead the list with 50,999. It is remarkable that the Scandinavian element is still strong, as, indeed, it has now been for years, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark being credited for three months with 20,109. France on the other hand, sends the strikingly small number of 153, and Italy but 105.

THE ISRAELITES IN EUROPE AND AMERICA.—From a variety of causes the condition of the Israelites in Europe, especially in Eastern Europe, is one of great misery. In all the great centres of population and trade it is true there are many Jews who have amassed immense wealth. In these same centres, however, many of them are very poor. Away from the large centres they are generally a wretched class. In some parts of Germany, in Russia, Poland, in Southern Russia, in the Danubian Principalities, the Jewish quarters are scenes of great wretchedness and poverty. We have often in these columns adverted to the very different condition of the Israelites in this country. Here they prosper and grow in wealth and influence. With us, in fact, the name of Israelite is suggestive of success and influence. Why this difference? The reason is obvious. In Europe the Jew is despised and down-trodden. In the East of Europe, particularly, the son of Israel is not supposed to have any rights which a Christian is bound to respect. It is only recently that there were enacted in the Principalities, and bearing especially upon the Jews, laws worthy of the worst days of Spain, when a Jew was well off if he was not used for fuel, and of the days of King John in England, when it was a Christian custom to find out a Jew's purse by plucking the teeth out of his head. How can any man get on if you trample the life out of him? The Jew fails in Europe—he is poor and wretched, because he is down-trodden and oppressed. He cannot succeed, because he has no chance. Here the Jew has a fair play. He has the rights of a free man. Every privilege, every office is open to his ambition. He has a fair field. He is allowed to win if he can, and he often succeeds. We have often said, and we say it again, for the special benefit of the All ance Israelite Universal Society and its worthy President, M. A. Cremicux, that this is the true promised land of the Israelites. Here are the milk and honey for which they and their fathers have for generations been longing. Here, on our mountain sides, on our far spreading valleys and on the banks of our mighty rivers, are corn and wine and oil in rich and overflowing abundance. Here too, there is room enough and to spare. Let the suffering Jews of Europe make an exodus to this grander land of promise. We bid them welcome, and we will not think the less of them if they imitate the example of their ancestors and borrow ere they set out "every man of his neighbor and every woman of her neighber jewels of silver and jewels of gold."

New York Herald.

"There is no secret about success in life," said Commodore Vanderbilt; "all you have to do is to attend to your business and go ahead—except one thing," added the Commodore, "and that is never tell what you are going to do till you have done it."

Nothing succeeds like success; and nothing fails like failure.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—The First Baptist Church, under the superintendence of Mr. John Sholar, rapidly approaches completion. It is thought this magnificent church edifice will be ready for use by the close of the present year, as the work is now being pushed forward with great energy.

In the interior of this church our native pine may be seen in all its beauty. This wood is used exclusively in all the inside finish; and. to our taste, surpasses any of the finer woods in real elegance.—Star.

BRUTAL CONDUCT.—Yesterday about 2 o'clock, while several policemen had charge of a drunken seaman on Front street, and while the man was on the pavement stupid with liquor, one or more of the policemen beat him most unmercifully and unnecessarily over the head with their batons. The poor fellow's wounds bled profusely.

We are glad to learn that the Grand Jury have taken cognizance of this brutal conduct, and recommend suitable action to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen. The officers of the law must be made to learn that their official positions do not give license to mal-treat those who fall into their hands. We suffer as much now from the violence and bad conduct of officials as from that of law-breakers.—Wil. Journal.

THE BAR IN THE WEST.—The manner in which an honest lawyer is obliged to make a living "out West" was amusingly demonstated a few days ago in the Circuit Court in Des Moines, Iowa.

The court being in session, a tall lank specimen of the pioneer class arose to his tallest altitude, and addressed the court as follows:

"If the court please, I have a few cases of not much importance which demand my attention, and as I am engaged in the honorable occupation of cutting cord word at a distance from the city, I would request the court to suggest a time when I may expect the causes of my clients to be brought up for trial." The court recognized the urgncy of the situation and fixed a time, and the enterprising attorney departed for the woods."

James M. Mason, for a long time one of the United States senators from Virginia, and the representative of the Confederate States to the Court of St. James, is now a resident of Seminary Hill, and almost daily drives into town in an ordinary no-top spring wagon with a blue body, and behind a dark brown horse by no means remarkable for its looks or gait. The ex-ambassador wears a black felt hat with a broad brim, a bob-tailed beaver-cloth sack coat, gray breeches, the legs of which are stuffed in a pair of heavy boots, and long buckskin gauntlets. He holds the reins and handles the whip, too, as though he had not forgotten his boyish days; and the bale, hearty old man, as seen going into the bank or the stores on King street, presents little of the appearance of the distinguished gentleman who but a short time ago was acting a conspicuous part in the drama of life where the scenes were laid among courts and palaces, and when a nation's life was the object sought for.

Alexandria Gazette.

As poet, Victor Hugo is, perhaps, the greatest that France has ever known. Subtler than Lamartine, he is as tender and sympathetic. In reading, his glowing verse, rugged though it sometimes may be, we feel that we are holding companionship with one whose heart echoes responsively to every call of humanity. As a dramatist, he stands at the head of the modern school of France, known as the "romantic school." As an orator, he stands second to but few, if any, among the great orators of his country. As a novelist, who is there who has ever read Notre Dame de Paris and Les Miserables, and not felt that the author of those two works had no superior in France in that class of literature?

There are now four millions more circulation of fractional currency than at any time since its first issue, yet complaints from the South and West are loud.

The receipts from Internal Revenue and customs for the current month show a decrease, but, so far, warrants on the Treasury have been light. Another decrease of the debt is expected.

Parker Pillsbury among the South Carolina niggers has had an awful waking up. Pillsbury, however, has set a good example to all his fellow negro worshippers of the Wendell Phillips coterie in going down South to see for himself how far the ballot has elevated "the national freedmen," for even Sumner would learn something to his advantage in a Southern excursion in search of knowledge.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Great Vitalizer.

This title may be fairly given to a restorative which has taken precedence of all other tonics and alterative preperations for a period of nearly twenty years. During that long interval HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS may be truly said to have enjoyed unrivalled popularity. Many preparations have been got up to compete with it, but they have all fallen into its wake or sunk into oblivion for lack of patronage. From the first, this now world-renowned Vegetable Tonic has been both medically and financially successful. Every year has added to the number of its friends, and the demand for it, based solely upon the experemental proofs of its excellence as a preventive and curative, seems to have no assignable limit. The medical profession sanction and approve its use, and it is now at the head of the class of medicines to which it belongs, the admitted, undisputed SOVEREIGN TONIC OF THE AGE. The statistics of the United States Revenue department will verify the statement that it stands alone and unapproved in the magnitude of its sales as compared with those of any other proprietory remedy advertised on this side of the Atlantic.

THE EXPLANATION of this fact may be comprised in a few words. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is at once the purest, the safest, and the most potent of all vegetable tonics, and the best antidote to every variety of malarious disease. Hence it is especially adapted to the present season of chilling dews and unwholesome vapors.

McALPINE'S CREEK.—We have been requested to call the attention of the County Commissioners, to the bridge across this Creek. It has been three years since it was passable. It is not uncommon for twenty or thirty wagons to be detained by high-water on its banks to the great inconvenience and expense of the teamsters and others coming to market. During dry weather, the ford is good, but in the winter season, it is not unfrequently so flooded, as to make it impassable and dangerous to those who are not familiar with it. This Creek runs across the main road, leading to Monroe, Wadesboro and all points southeast, a thoroughfare over which a very valuable and important trade passes to this city. Now, to put up such a bridge as is here required, will cost at least one thousand dollars, (we believe the last one cost eight hundred in gold), which is more than any one Township can afford, so it should be built as in good old times, by the entire county, therefore we have called the attention of the County Commissioners to it.

☞ Silk Mixed Business Suits at H. & B. Emanuel's.

We are requested by the Lecture Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, to announce that Mr. Hewlett's lectures will be on the evenings of Tuesday 26th, Wednesday 27th, and Thursday 28th, instead of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday as first published. The Raleigh people have been so much pleased with this great lecturer, that they insist on his remaining another night with them.

☞ Fine Chinchilla Over Coats at H. & B. Emanuel's.

MR. HEWLETT'S LECTURES.—We return our thanks to Capt. A. G. Brenizer, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, for a complimentary to the lectures. We are very glad at last, that we are going to have this species of entertainment inaugurated here. As we have not a Lyceim, this Association can supply the desideratum, and as they have started, we trust they will continue, so as to give us two a month during the season, Mr. Hewlett is reputed to be one of the most humorous, brilliant and effective lecturers in the conntry, and it wont, speak much for the taste of the city, if he does not have crowded houses.

☞ Fine Beaver Suits as good as custom made, selling cheap at H. & B. Emanuel.

HEWLETT'S LECTURE.—S. M. Hewlett delivered his lecture according to announcement, on Thursday evening of last week. His lecture, "Hits on the Times," was full of telling points, and made a decided impression on his audience. The attendance was large, the people turning out in great numbers. We think we express the unanimous sentiment of the audience, in saying that he is one of the most interesting speakers that ever visited Catskill: and that his re-announcement to lecture on the "Lights and Shadows of Irish Character," would secure an overflowing house.—The Examiner, Catskill, N. Y.

☞ Boots and Shoes of all kinds at the lowest prices at H. & B. Emanuel.

To the Citizens of Charlotte, N. C.:

Mr. S. M. Hewlett, who has during the last twenty-five years obtained both North and South an enviable reputation as a natural orator, humorist and accomplished gent eman, will deliver a series of lectures at Oates' Hall, in this city, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The first lecture will be delivered on Monday night, 25th subject "Hits at the Times;" second lecture, Tuesday night, 26th subject "Muzzle that Dog;" third lecture, Wednesday night, 27th, subject "Power of Habits."

Mr. Hewlett comes to this city after having delivered a series of lectures before the Y. M. C. A. at Raleigh, N. C.

The Y. M. C. A. with confidence appeal to a generous public to sustain them in this effort to provide something pleasant, entertaining and improving, for the winter evenings and at the same time aid them in their efforts to do good.

Agents should collect ten cents from each customer and forward to us in advance, for Descriptive Checks of the goods we sell.

The holders of the Checks have the privilege of either purchasing the article thereon described, or of exchanging for any article mentioned on our catologue, numbering over 350 different articles—not one of which can be purchased in the usual way for the same money.

The advantages of first sending for Checks are these: We are constantly buying small lots of very valuable goods, which are not on our catologues, and for which we issue checks till all are sold; besides, in every large club we will put checks for WATCHES, QUILTS, BLANKETS, DRESS PATTERNS, or some other article of value, giving some members of the club an opportunity of purchasing an article for about one quarter of its value.

"In every order amounting to over $50, accompanied by the cash, the Agent may retain $2.00, and in every order of over $100, $3.00 may be retained to

PAY THE EXPRESS CHARGES.

This offer is more especially to assist Agents in the Western and Southern States, but is open to all customers.

COMMISSIONS

Agents will be paid ten per cent. in Cash or Merchandise, when they fill up their entire club, for which below we give a partial List of Commissions;

For an order of $30, from a club of Thirty, we will pay the Agent, as Commission, 28 yds. Brown or Bleached Sheeting, Good Dress Pattern, Wool Square Shawl, French Cassimere Pants and Vest Pattern, Fine Large White Counterpane, etc., etc., or $3 in cash.

For an order of $50, from a club of Fifty, we will pay the Agent, as Commission, 45 yds. Sheeting, One pair heavy Wool Blankets, Poplin Dress pattern, Handsome wool Square Shawl, silver-Case Watch, etc., etc., or $5 in cash.

For an order of $100, from a club of One Hundred, we will pay the Agent, as commission, 100 yds. good yard-wide Sheeting, Coin-Silver Hunting Case Watch, Rich Long Wool Shawl, Suit o all Wool French Cassimere, etc., etc., or $1 in cash.

We do not employ any Travelling Agents, and customers should not pay money to persons purporting to be our Agents, unless personally acquainted.

SEND MONEY ALWAYS BY REGISTERED LETTERS.

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger but with the

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES which is a success really remarkable, as far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANLY, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.

NOTICE.—We hereby notify the public that, from and after this date, we employ no agents for the sale of

Gregory's Dyspeptic Mixture,

Neither are there any interested parties with us. We are the inventors, sole proprietors, and only manufacturers of the GENUINE ARTICLE, and our individual signatures accompany each bottle—and all orders and remittances must be made to Drs. W. W. & R. K. GREGORY, at Charlotte, N. C.

In assuming the entire charge of this invaluable remedy, we present it to you in a new dress, and have reduced the price to $1 50 per bottle, to bring it within the reach of all. In the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle will be seen the certificates of the most distinguished physicians, judges and divines, in the State, and we only ask for it a trial, that dyspeptics may be convinced of its curative virtues.

A liberal discount to the trade.
